

ADP South–South Online Consultation Series
Module 1: Integrated, multisectoral planning through implementation research

Wednesday 1 July 2020

09:00am Accra; 11:00am Geneva; 12:00pm Dar es Salaam; 16:00pm Bangkok/Jakarta

Summary agenda

Welcome and introduction to the ADP Online Consultation Series
Cecilia Oh Programme Advisor for ADP, UNDP Bangkok Regional Hub
Housekeeping and participant 'survey'
Overview of the ADP value chain of access and delivery
Cecilia Oh
Panel discussion
Introduction: Implementation research (IR), integrated planning and contextualizing the impact of COVID-19 on disease control programmes
Dr Olumide Ogundahunsi Scientist, Special Programme for Research and Training in Tropical Diseases (TDR), Geneva
Country example 1 SAVING consortium in Ghana
Prof. Margaret Gyapong Director of the Centre for Health Policy and Implementation Research, University of Health and Allied Sciences, Ghana
Country example 2 The STEPPS initiative in Tanzania
Dr Paul Kazyoba Chief Research Scientist, National Institute for Medical Research, United Republic of Tanzania
Participant poll
Breakout group exercise
Small group discussion on the impact of COVID-19 on health systems and how integrated planning across the value chain can help protect/restore delivery of disease control programmes
Break
Report back from Breakout groups
Open discussion, comments and questions
Closing reflection
Dr Olumide Ogundahunsi, TDR
Housekeeping, next module. Thanks.